Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time PARTYING WITH ANGELS

While the first reading from Sirach and the Gospel focus on humility, with a surprise reversal of the humble being exalted, the reading from Hebrews surprises us in a different way. The author uses apocalyptic imagery to show how much the relationship between God and humanity has changed. He starts with images of fire, storms, and trumpet blasts—images that may remind you of an erupting volcano. Even God's words brought fear and trembling.

It may not be surprising that God is beyond human comprehension, but Hebrews says no. God doesn't want to be so far beyond us that we only approach in fear. Using more images from the end-time, the author gives us a picture of the baptized partying with angels and all the just who have died. And of course God is the host. Let's look at some of those images to see how our relationship with the Lord has grown.

The heavenly Jerusalem reminds us that the Church is our home—not just your parish church building but the whole community of faith. How “at home” are you with your fellow parishioners? A church community can be a place to support those who are sick or jobless or depressed. It is also a place to be supported, to see God's love in action. The angels in Hebrews may be a symbol of that support.

The “firstborn” and “spirits of the just” could remind us of those who went before us and now rest in the Lord. They had their own struggles in life, and now live in glory. They help us to keep our true goal in mind, eternal life.

Jesus came to show us how much God loves us and how close God can be. When he shed his blood on the cross (the final sign in our reading), he renewed the covenant with God's people. We accept that gift not just by a verbal statement of faith, but by a life lived as Jesus showed us, in love of God and our neighbor.

MASS ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR AUGUST 30/31

(To be read by one of the lectors after communion.)

1. Details from the following announcements are in our bulletin and website.
2. This year's Father Grace Memorial Golf Tournament is finally here! To honor Father John Grace's memory, our pastor for 61 years, who had a love for the game of golf all the way to his last tournament at 98 years old, we have decided that this should be a time-honored tradition, a wonderful opportunity to remember a great human being and servant of the Lord. Thank you to everyone who has made this possible.
3. Faith Formation in-person enrollment for the upcoming year will take place September 15–18, from 6–8 PM at the Faith Formation Center. Full details are available on the flyer located at the back of the church.
4. Next weekend, there will be a second collection—the Diocesan Collection for Priests Retirement. This is an opportunity for parishioners to thank our faithful and dedicated priests for their long and loving service to the Diocese. Please consider making a donation.
5. On Wednesday, October 1st, we will be celebrating the feast day of our patroness, St. Theresa of Lisieux. We will have a celebration that will start with a procession at 6pm, followed by a Mass and reception in Grace Hall.
6. Thank you.

Apostolic Nuncio to the Philippine
Archbishop Charles John Brown, DD*

Special Ministry:

Fr. Franz was confessor of 2 Bishops with another bishop and a Cardinal coming occasionally for confession.

Highlights of his ministry:

a.) A Diocesan turned Religious / A hesitant Founder:

Ordained a diocesan, Fr. Franz aspired to a life of contemplation. After his asylum and before he took over the position as Diocesan Director for the yearlong 1985 celebration of the Philippine National Marian Year, he was granted his Bishop's permission to enter monastic life. But this didn't get thru because the same bishop commissioned him to found instead religious congregations now known as Sons of Mary Adorers of the Holy Eucharist (SMAHE) (for priests and brothers) and Sisters of Mary Adorers of the Holy Eucharist. (SMAHE). These congregations were inspired in the ante-room of the office of His Holiness (now Saint) John Paul II while waiting for his turn (together with the Philippine Bishops) for private audience during the Ad Limina Visit during the time he was his bishop's private secretary.

Engrossed for quiet life and considering the permission for contemplative life that was already granted, Fr. Franz hesitated to found. However, since priestly vow of obedience for him is a must, he gave up the "desire for quiet life" and founded SMAHE in obedience to his bishop. Hence the Sons and Sisters of Mary Adorers of the Holy Eucharist.

b.) A privilege:

1. He was offered to become a bishop by the Cardinal who comes occasionally for confession. However, grateful, he modestly declined to become a bishop in exchange for missionary work and remained an ordinary priest. His Eminence Ricardo J. Cardinal Vidal became Fr. Franz's spiritual father and guide.
2. He received an invitation for a position at the Our Lady of Lourdes in France but humbly declined to avoid complication with his religious duties with congregations that was yet very young.
3. He served twice as his bishop's private secretary to the Ad Limina Visit in 1985, where the inspiration to found SMAHE took place, and in 1998, respectively.

A lifetime Ministry:

In connection with SMAHE, Fr. Franz founded and is currently operating mission schools scattered in the Philippine mission areas including a college seminary and orphanages with extension in Vietnam.

Orphanage Graduates, Both Successful And Unsuccessful

Genalyn B.

Genalyn was a 2-months old when put up for sale for $47.00 by her family, due to poverty. When the Orphanage of the Virgin of Guadalupe (OVG) Director, learned of this, he counseled the family against it and tried, unsuccessfully, to find both parents jobs. But the need was urgent. Therefore, the Director paid the amount and brought the baby to the orphanage.

Lynlyn, as she was fondly called, grew up to be a beautiful twenty old woman and was in her 3rd year of Pharmacy at St. Jude's College when, unfortunately, she left school and all access to her has been lost.

Kevin D.

Kevin was born out of wedlock. Unwanted by the family, a couple tried to adopt him but the couple's children disapproved the idea. Thus, he ended up at the orphanage. Kevin left after completing 2 years of college, went to work on the outside, and is doing well.

Geru L.

Geru was one year and 6 months old, badly malnourished and sick when the OVG Director, saw him in the dirty arms of his malnourished mother. His mother, having been raped and traumatized, was sick and on the verge of losing her mind. Jobless, she would search for anything to eat by the seashore (where Geru's older and only sister had drowned while scavenging for food).

It was so touching when the mother handed over her son to the OVG Director. The mother never stopped crying, but she had to give her son up for a better future. She passed away a year later. After completing 2 years of college, Geru decided to go out on his own. He is doing well.

Bryan H.

Brian is the youngest of 8 children. His father became mentally incapacitated, was confined to a mental hospital and, eventually, died there.

With his father confined to a hospital, the already poor living condition of the family worsened. Bryan's mother, who could hardly raise enough money for the family's basic needs, had to sell all that they had, including their belongings, for her husband's medication and the subsistence of their 8 children. Finally Brian, then 8 months old, had to be given up; the reason why he ended up in the orphanage.

Brian completed college, attaining an AB in Philosophy, and taught high school for 2 years before deciding to leave on his own. Currently he holds a good job on the outside and is doing well.

and Brothers

SMAHE is the acronym of a semi-contemplative twin religious congregation for priests and brothers or nuns: the Sons and Sisters of Mary Adorers of the Holy Eucharist. SMAHE was inspired by the Holy Spirit when a 36 year old Filipino priest, Rev. Franz M. Crucis had his first audience with the Saint John Paul II in October 1985 at His Holiness' office inside the Vatican in Rome. In 1986, guided by the Blessed Virgin Mary coupled with the permission and blessing by Bishop Celso Guevarra, the Sisters congregation was founded; followed quickly (in 1988) by the congregation for the Priests

Although third world countries are known to be very poor countries, not everyone is actually poor. In the Philippines, there is a handful of rich but, boy, poverty is everywhere. In a particular scenario like this, the gap between the rich and the poor is so wide, it's like heaven and earth; the rich continue to get richer and the poor becomes poorer.

Up on the streets of the metropolitan Manila and down in the provinces, unwanted children, neglected, abused, scavengers, homeless and orphaned, including child labor, are a common sight. Pictures such as these make emotions run high. It is almost impossible for a person to hold his/her emotions whenever he/she sees these little angels asleep along the streets, laying sick or abandoned without anybody's care, and/or searching for food in the trash, knowing that they will grow up without a proper education.

With a very bad economy prevailing in the country (where an ordinary laborer gets only $3 a day), the Philippine government is helpless in responding to this perennial problem without the help of Non Government Organizations or Religious Organizations, like SMAHE, that run Charitable Institutions.

Concerned of the welfare of these unfortunate children, whose God's "kingdom they belong" (Mt. 19:14), Fr. Crucis founded the Orphanage of the Virgin of Guadalupe (OVG), where the "children be fed first" (Mk 7:27). The toddlers and female teenagers are under the care of Nuns while teenage boys are under the care of Brothers. There they learn and experience what love really means.

For ten years, the kids were housed in a house that was lent free of charge by an old lady. But when she passed away, the heir kicked the kids out. Leaving in haste, these little angels relocated with their guardian-nuns and lived like cramped sardines in a one-bedroom rented house.

By the grace of God and with the help of some friends, three modest houses now stand in a 3-acre property that was donated for this purpose. These houses, which were built according to God's Word, are a place of love, trust, mutual interest and unselfish service, i.e. a place of harmony and contentment. These houses have become a home.

While OVG was originally intended only as home for less fortunate children, it has recently become also a shelter for runaways, rape victims, and incest victims. The care for these less fortunate little angels is a duty and responsibility of every baptized Christian for "whatever you do to the least of your brothers you do it to me" (Mt. 25:40).

It is for this reason that in 1998 the late Pope John Paul II, at Abujan Nigeria, echoed the same sentiment when he said, "We must all work for a world in which no child will be deprived of peace and security, of a stable family life, of the right to grow up without fear and anxiety."

Children need food and money for medicine and education. Moreover, the construction of a Medical and Dental facility which was started 4 years ago, is on hold due to lack of money and needs approximately $10,000 for its completion.

SMAHE needs financial support to sustain the priestly education of its 63 seminarians. Many have come to OVG as orphans and have grown up dedicating their lives to God, but have no monetary means to achieve their goals in life. Monthly food and lodging alone currently stand at $100 per seminarian.

In 2001, the Foundation for The Orphanage of the Virgin of Guadalupe (FOVG) was founded by Mike DeMinter and his wife, Amie, as a tax exempt avenue for those who wished to support SMAHE and OVG. Mike and Amie, on three occasions, visited the orphanage located at Lavezares, Northern Samar, Philippines and saw for themselves the needs and witnessed the operations of OVG and SMAHE. To better assist in providing the needs of OVG and SMAHE, FOVG has placed itself under the directorship of Fr. Crucis. FOVG is 501(c)(3) Tax Exempt No. 91-2142480.

VOCACIONES Y MAYORDOMÍA

Cinco nuevos seminaristas comienzan su formación este año escolar. Les pedimos que los tengan presentes en sus oraciones mientras disciernen su vocación y se preparan para una vida de servicio. Con la gracia de Dios, que algún día se conviertan en nuestros pastores parroquiales en la diócesis. ¡Su trayectoria es una bendición para todos nosotros!

FONDO DE JUBILACIÓN DE SACERDOTES DIOCESANOS | 6 Y 7 DE SEPTIEMBRE

El próximo fin de semana habrá una segunda colecta para el Fondo de Jubilación de Sacerdotes Diocesanos. Es una oportunidad para que los feligreses puedan agradecerle a nuestros sacerdotes fieles y dedicados, por su largo y entregado servicio a la Diócesis. Por favor consideren hacer una donación.

VIGÉSIMO SEGUNDO DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO HACER FIESTA CON LOS ÁNGELES

Mientras que la primera lectura del Sirácida y el Evangelio se enfocan en la humildad, con una sorprendente inversión de la exaltación del humilde, la lectura de Hebreos nos sorprende de una manera diferente. El autor utiliza imágenes apocalípticas para mostrar cuánto ha cambiado la relación entre Dios y la humanidad. Comienza con imágenes de fuego, tormentas y trompetas, imágenes que pueden recordarnos a un volcán en erupción. Incluso las palabras de Dios infundían temor y temblor.

Puede que no sea sorprendente que Dios esté más allá de la comprensión humana, pero la carta a los Hebreos nos dice que no. Dios no quiere estar tan lejos de nosotros que solo nos acerquemos con miedo. Utilizando más imágenes del fin de los tiempos, el autor nos ofrece una imagen de los bautizados celebrando con ángeles y todos los justos que han muerto. Y, por supuesto, Dios es el anfitrión. Veamos algunas de esas imágenes para ver cómo ha crecido nuestra relación con el Señor. La Jerusalén celestial nos recuerda que la Iglesia es nuestro hogar; no solo el templo de nuestra parroquia, sino toda la comunidad de fe. ¿Qué tan "en casa" te sientes con los otros feligreses? Una comunidad eclesial puede ser un lugar para apoyar a quienes están enfermos, desempleados o deprimidos. También es un lugar para recibir apoyo, para ver el amor de Dios en acción. Los ángeles en Hebreos pueden ser un símbolo de ese apoyo.

Los "primogénitos" y los "espíritus de los justos" podrían recordarnos a quienes nos precedieron y ahora descansan en el Señor. Tuvieron sus propias batallas en la vida y ahora viven en la gloria. Nos ayudan a mantener presente nuestro verdadero objetivo: la vida eterna. Jesús vino a mostrarnos cuánto nos ama Dios y cuán cerca puede estar. Cuando derramó su sangre en la cruz (la última señal de las lecturas), renovó la alianza con el pueblo de Dios. Aceptamos ese don no solo con una declaración verbal de fe, sino con una vida vivida como Jesús nos enseñó, por amor a Dios y al prójimo.

ESTAS SON LAS ANUNCIAS PARA EL 31 DE AGOSTO

(Para ser leído por uno de los lectores después de la comunión.)

1. Los detalles de los siguientes anuncios se encuentran en el boletín y en nuestro sitio web.
2. ¡Por fin llegó el Torneo de Golf en Memoria del Padre Grace de este año! Para honrar la memoria del Padre John Grace, nuestro párroco durante 61 años, quien amó el golf hasta su último torneo a los 98 años, hemos decidido que esta sea una tradición consagrada, una maravillosa oportunidad para recordar a un gran ser humano y siervo del Señor. Gracias a todos los que lo hicieron posible.
3. La inscripción presencial para la Formación en la Fe del próximo año se llevará a cabo del 15 al 18 de septiembre, de 6 a 8 p. m., en el Centro de Formación en la Fe. Encontrará todos los detalles en el folleto ubicado en la parte trasera de la iglesia.
4. El próximo fin de semana habrá una segunda colecta para el Fondo de Jubilación de Sacerdotes Diocesanos. Es una oportunidad para que los feligreses puedan agradecerle a nuestros sacerdotes fieles y dedicados, por su largo y entregado servicio a la Diócesis. Por favor consideren hacer una donación.
5. Nuestra patrona, Santa Teresa de Lisieux. Tendremos una celebración que comenzará con una procesión a las 18:00 h, seguida de una misa y una recepción en el Salón Grace.
6. Gracias.
