2022 ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Bring God's tender care to others through the Annual Catholic Appeal
25% comes back to our parish for our own outreach to those in need.

On the weekend of February 26, we will have the opportunity to come alongside those who are suffering through the Annual Catholic Appeal. Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, makes a difference in someone's life. Catholic Charities can respond to the greatest needs in our communities. Seminarians receive support as they prepare to serve our local parishes. Catholic schools in economically challenged neighborhoods can provide tuition assistance. And 25% of what you donate comes back to our parish to bring God's tender care to others. rayerfully consider what you can give this year.

A WARNING TO MIDDLE-AGED HEARTS

“When Solomon was old...his heart was not entirely with the Lord.” —1 Kings 11:4

King Solomon started his reign as “a mere youth” (1 Kgs 3:7). Young Solomon started well as king. He humbly asked God for wisdom to govern well and built the Temple so the Lord could be fittingly worshipped. But “when he was old,” Solomon's heart was no longer entirely with the Lord (1 Kgs 11:4). How old was Solomon when his heart turned away from God? Numerous estimates believe he died in his early sixties.

This is a stark warning to those of us in our forties and fifties. We may feel we are just reaching our peak. King David, father of Solomon, may have felt similarly. Yet David's downfall also began in his middle-age years. David relaxed at home while his soldiers fought his battles (2 Sm 11:1). In his idleness, David succumbed to the temptations of adultery and murder (2 Sm 11:2-17). The mid-life sins of Kings David and Solomon sowed the seeds for the downfall of both their families and the nation of Israel.

A great cost is paid when our middle-aged hearts are no longer entirely with the Lord. St. Paul warns: “Your thoughts may be corrupted and you may fall away from your sincere and complete devotion to Christ” (2 Cor 11:3). We may think in our middle age that, after decades of hard work, we have earned a break. Scripture warns: “Already you have devoted enough time to what the pagans enjoy” (1 Pt 4:3). Repent of any desires to find rest apart from the Lord. “Come to Me,” says the Lord, “and you will find rest for your souls” (see Mt 11:28-29).

Prayer: Jesus, change anything in me so I may be all Yours.

Promise: “Happy are they who observe what is right, who always do what is just.” —Ps 106:3

Praise: There is only one “Holy Family,” but the Catholic Church has produced countless holy families: St. Scholastica is the twin sister of St. Benedict. Praise the Lord!

THE HOLY FATHER'S PRAYER INTENTIONS ENTRUSTED TO HIS WORLDWIDE PRAYER NETWORK FOR THE YEAR

REFLECTIONS

Dear Johan,

Liturgy is taken very seriously in our church. We enjoy it very much, but there are times when I wonder about the purpose of it all. Any thoughts?

Gentle reader,

Even those of us who are immersed in the liturgy are occasionally tempted by this question: What's it all for? So, don't despair.

In a way, our liturgical mandate is summed up in the Second Vatican Council's document on the liturgy, which identifies liturgy as the "source and summit" of the Christian life. It is with baptism/confirmation that our life as Christians begins and with the rite of Christian burial that we are accompanied to our grave. We journey from baptism to burial nourished by the Eucharist, ordered by holy matrimony or holy orders, and healed by the sacrament of reconciliation and the sacrament of the sick.

Moreover, in these liturgies we celebrate during our earthly journey we are rehearsed in how we can be more like Christ, thus contributing to the Body of Christ. To this end, the liturgy both soothes and challenges us. The liturgy reaches out to people in their specific life situation to nourish, encourage, and heal. The liturgy also is intended to stretch our horizons and to pull us out of our small and self-centered worlds. The ultimate test of a Christian community's liturgical life is whether it changes lives. Does our liturgy call us to be one with the poor, to share our table with the hungry, to visit the sick, to embrace the dying? If so, then we are well on our way to being more like Christ and our liturgy, no matter its style, is truly a foretaste and a rehearsal of the eternal Jerusalem.

In the end, if the liturgy does not change us into becoming more like Christ, then it is nothing but ritual fits and follies. So, let's celebrate the liturgy well so it may change our hearts and minds and send us into the world to make a difference.

Ashes

The ashes are made from the blessed palms used in the Palm Sunday celebration of the previous year. The ashes are christened with Holy Water and are scented by exposure to incense. While the ashes symbolize penance and contrition, they are also a reminder that God is gracious and merciful to those who call on Him with repentant hearts. His Divine mercy is of utmost importance during the season of Lent, and the Church calls on us to seek that mercy during the entire Lenten season with reflection, prayer and penance. <https://www.catholic.org/lent/ashwed.php>

LLAMADO CATÓLICO ANUAL
Llevando el cuidado de Dios a los demás a través
del Llamado Católico Anual
25% regresa a nuestra parroquia para nuestro propio alcance a los necesitados.

Durante el fin de semana del 26 de febrero tendremos la oportunidad de unirnos a aquellos que están sufriendo a través del Llamado Católico Anual. Cada uno de nuestros regalos, sin importar la cantidad, hace la diferencia en la vida de alguien. Las Caridades Católicas pueden responder a las mayores necesidades de nuestras comunidades. Los seminaristas reciben apoyo mientras se preparan para servir a nuestras parroquias locales. Las escuelas católicas en vecindarios con dificultades económicas pueden brindar asistencia de matrículas. El 25% de tu donación regresa a nuestra parroquia para llevar el cuidado y amor de Dios a los demás.

En oración, por favor considera lo que puede donar este año.

SU LLAMADA PARA DARLO TODO

“Aléjate de mí, Señor, porque soy un pecador” (Lucas 5:8)

Domingo, 6 de febrero de 2022; 5to domingo de T. Ordinario
Isaías 6:1-8; Salmos 138:1-5, 7-8; 1 Corintios 15:1-11; Lucas 5:1-11

Isaías, san Pablo, y san Pedro fueron profundamente tocados por un encuentro con Dios Todopoderoso. Cada uno vio la gloria y la majestad de Dios y fueron llenos de sobrecogimiento y de temor al Señor. Se sintieron profundamente conmovidos, y se dieron cuenta de la santidad de Dios tanto como de su propia condición de pecadores. Dios los tocó, y ese toque removió sus pecados. Así purificados, Dios los llamó, y cada uno respondió dando su vida al Señor: “¡Aquí estoy: envíame!” (Is 6:8)

Dios es creativo en las formas que nos toca. Pedro era un pescador profesional; Jesús lo tocó en el trabajo (Lc 5:3-11). Pablo estaba activamente persiguiendo a Jesús; el Señor tocó a Pablo en medio de su oposición (Hch 9:1-19). Isaías estaba dentro del Templo en Jerusalén, presuntamente alabando y sirviendo a Dios, cuando el Señor lo tocó (Is 6:1ss).

El Señor te puede tocar a ti en cualquier momento, en cualquier estado de vida, si los sirves o si te opones a Él. No todos tienen un encuentro tan vívido con Dios Todopoderoso. Sin embargo, Él nos da a cada uno la oportunidad de encontrarlo de muchas maneras: los sacramentos, las escrituras, la Iglesia, Su Catecismo, el Espíritu Santo, María Santísima, los ángeles de la guarda, otros cristianos, la belleza de la creación, y de muchas maneras más. Por esto, arrepiéntete profundamente. “Busquen al Señor mientras se deja encontrar” (Is 55:6). Abre la Biblia y léela. Ve a la Misa, diariamente si posible. “Recurran al Señor y a su poder, busquen constantemente su rostro” (Sal 105:4).

Oración: Señor, que te “busque con un empeño diez veces mayor” (Bar 4:28). Tócame y convénceme de mis pecados. Dame la gracia para oír y responder a Tu llamada. Soy Tuyo enteramente.

Promesa: “El Señor lo hará todo por mí” (Sal 138:8).

Alabanza: ¡Qué Tú seas alabado, Jesús resucitado, Rey del Universo! ¡Aleluya!
