CATHOLIC HUMOR

-A Jesuit, a Dominican, and a Franciscan were walking along an old road, debating the greatness of their orders. Suddenly, an apparition of the Holy Family appeared in front of them, with Jesus in a manger and Mary and Joseph praying over him. The Franciscan fell on his face, overcome with awe at the sight of God born in such poverty. The Dominican fell to his knees, adoring the beautiful reflection of the Trinity and the Holy Family. The Jesuit walked up to Joseph, put his arm around his shoulder, and said, "So, have you thought about where to send him to school?"

-A priest was driving and gets stopped for speeding.

The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car.

He says, "Father, have you been drinking?"

"Just water," says the priest, fingers crossed.

The trooper says, "Then why do I smell wine?" The priest looks at the bottle and says, "Praise be to God! He's done it again!"

ADVENT TO THE MAX

"...a herald's voice in the desert: Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight His paths." —Matthew 3:3

The purpose of Advent is to prepare the way of the Lord, Who is coming to us in a new personal way this Christmas season. But there are different kinds and degrees of preparation. The Church teaches with John the Baptist that our preparation for Christ's coming this Christmas needs to be very extensive. We even need a baptism of repentance, that is, to be immersed in repentance (see Mt 3:11).

Our preparation for Christ this Christmas is comparable to a major excavation where mountains are made low and the fill dirt is used to fill in the valleys so as to make a rough road smooth and a crooked road straight (Lk 3:5). While the world gives us the picture of Santa Claus with a bag of presents, the Church presents the scene of the wild prophet, John the Baptist, driving a Komatsu super earth-mover to bury our sins.

Very few of us believe that Christmas is so great and we are so sinful as to require such an earthquake of preparation. However, the Church is right. We need a big Advent to have a true Christmas.

Prayer: Father, send the Holy Spirit so that I will not minimize but maximize Advent.

Promise: "The Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him: a spirit of wisdom and of understanding, a spirit of counsel and of strength, a spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord." —Is 11:2

Praise: "God freed him from death's bitter pangs, however, and raised him up again, for it was impossible that death should keep its hold on him" (Acts 2:24). Alleluia!

DECEMBER | Universal: The Future of the Very Young

That every country take the measures necessary to prioritize the future of the very young, especially those who are suffering.

WHAT'S THE SMOKE FOR?

Dear Johan,

Advent is my favorite season of the year. I love the fact that we take time to prepare for the birthday of Jesus. Sadly, I don't know the meaning of the word Advent. Do you know what it means and where it comes from?

Gentle Reader,

The notion of the birthday of Jesus makes me a little uncomfortable. It reminds me of an unfortunate "children's Mass" with birthday cake and birthday song. Thankfully, there were no candles to be blown out. How many should there have been anyway?

Just to be clear, the season of Advent is the time of preparation leading up to the solemnity of Christmas in all its theological complexities. It is marked by the four Sundays of Advent.

The English word Advent comes from the Latin Adventus Domini, meaning the coming of the Lord. Most of us understand this to mean Jesus' presence with us at Christmas as we commemorate and celebrate his birth. The full meaning of Adventus Domini, however, embraces Jesus' birth two thousand years ago, his presence with us today, as well as his return at the end of time. Advent thus becomes a time of preparation not only for the celebration of Jesus' birth on Christmas. It also is a time when we become more aware of Jesus' presence in our lives today. And it is a time during which we prepare for his Second Coming at the end of time.

As a result, when we pray Maranatha or "Come, Lord Jesus," we not only pray for his presence in our midst at Christmas but we also pray for his presence among us today. And, most astoundingly, we even pray for his Second Coming, thus hastening the end of time.

As Christians we believe that when Christ returns he will inaugurate the completion of the messianic times. At that time, according to the prophet Isaiah, "They shall beat their swords into plowshares / and their spears into pruning hooks" and "the wolf shall be a guest of the lamb, / and the leopard shall lie down with the kid." "There shall be no harm or ruin on all my holy mountain." "The desert and the parched land . . . will bloom with abundant flowers." Not surprisingly, these are lines taken from readings used during the Advent season.

The beautiful season of Advent invites us to dream of that perfect world without disasters, disease, or death; a world where all God's children and all of creation exist together in perfect harmony. It is also a season during which we commit ourselves to making this harmonious world a bit more possible.

So, when we sing Maranatha let's do it with full voice and heart and let's act in ways that will hasten the arrival of that perfect world.

I hope I did not ruin Advent for you.

THE "O ANTIPHONS" OF ADVENT

The Roman Church has been singing the "O" Antiphons since at least the eighth century. They are the antiphons that accompany the Magnificat canticle of Evening Prayer from December 17-23. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but present ones as well. Their repeated use of the imperative "Come!" embodies the longing of all for the Divine Messiah.

WHAT IS THE SOCIAL ASPECT OF EUCARISTIC ADORATION?

"Devotion to the divine Eucharist exerts a great influence upon the soul in the direction of fostering a 'social' love, in which we put the common good ahead of private good, take up the cause of the community, the parish, the universal Church, and extend our charity to the whole world because we know that there are members of Christ everywhere . . . This zeal at prayer and at devoting oneself to God for the sake of the unity of the Church is something that religious, both men and women, should regard as very specially their own since they are bound in a very special way to adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and they have, by virtue of the vows they have pronounced, become a kind of crown set around it here on earth." MF, nos. 69, 71 Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, A Resource of the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy, Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

FLU SEASON AND THE SUSPENSION OF THE CUP AND OTHER PRECAUTIONS

The flu season has come early this year. The California Department of Public Health (CDPH) reports that the incidence of flu and flu-like illnesses is "widespread" and has reached a level requiring that we enact preventive measures to mitigate the possibility of infection at Mass. In order to protect the health and well-being of everyone, Bishop Soto has issued the following directives:

- The use of the Communion cup is suspended temporarily.
- Receive the Body of Christ in the hand (although receiving on the tongue is permitted)
- Do not shake hands. Offer the sign of Peace to those around you with a simple nod, saying "peace be with you."
- Do not hold hands during the Our Father.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and other Holy Days does not apply to those who are sick. If you are sick, stay home and take care of yourself. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time. And pray for those who are sick. The administration of Holy Communion in both kinds will resume as soon as the Bishop deems it safe and prudent to do so.

Hoy día, esas comunidades a menudo carecen de ahorros suficientes para cubrir las necesidades de su jubilación. También ayuda a asegurar que los miembros más jóvenes puedan continuar las buenas obras que iniciaron sus mayores. Por favor, sean generosos.

NOTA DISCORDANTE | "En aquel tiempo se presentó Juan el Bautista, predicando en el desierto de Judea" (Mateo 3:1).

Hoy la iglesia nos presenta en un personaje rústico llamado a Juan; que se vestía con pieles de camello (Mt 3:4). Además de ropa áspera y fea, comía saltamontes con miel, como quien come patatas fritas (Mt 3:4).

El estilo duro y áspero de la vida de Juan el Bautista también se reflejaba en su manera de predicar. Decía a los líderes religiosos: "Raza de víboras, ¿quién les enseñó a escapar de la ira de Dios que se acerca?" (Mt 3:7). Jesús nos dice que Juan es un profeta, "y más que un profeta" (Mt 11:9). Sin duda tenemos la obligación de escucharle con atención. Contrario a los personajes navideños que nos invitan a celebrar y a darnos gusto, Juan nos llama al arrepentimiento. Es claro que Juan el Bautista es la "nota discordante", el mensaje que arruina la mentalidad comercial de la época navideña.

Juan todavía ruge: "Conviértanse, porque el Reino de los Cielos está cerca" (Mt 3:2). "Preparen el camino del Señor, allanan sus senderos" (Mt 3:3). "Producen el fruto de una sincera conversión" (Mt 3:8).

Oración: Padre, envía a alguien, en mi vida, que me llame al arrepentimiento. Que pueda ir a confesarme lo antes posible.

Promesa: "Sobre él reposará el espíritu del Señor" (Is 11:2).

Alabanza: ¡Alabanza a Jesús resucitado, Emmanuel, "Dios con nosotros"! En su manto y en su muslo lleva escrito este nombre: Rey de los reyes y Señor de los señores (Ap 19:16).

"M" DE VICTORIA

"Bendito sea dios, el Padre de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, que nos ha bendecido en Cristo con toda clase de bienes espirituales en el cielo (efesios 1:3).

Después del primer pecado Dios prometió que no importa cuán malas se vean las cosas, aún tenemos una gran ventaja. Nosotros aplastamos la cabeza del diablo, él únicamente puede morder nuestros talones (Gen 3:15; Rom 16:20). No importa cuán manchados y sucios estemos por el pecado, todavía estamos llamados a ser "santos e irreprochables en su presencia" (Efe 1:4), "sin mancha ni arruga y sin ningún defecto" (Efe 5:27). Podemos "en todo esto obtener una amplia victoria, gracias a Aquél que nos amó" (Rom 8:37), "porque no hay nada imposible para Dios" (Lc 1:37).

Sin embargo, encontramos que las promesas gloriosas de victoria de Dios son difíciles de creer. A menudo, nuestras experiencias diarias son largas rachas de pérdidas en vez de una cadena imparable de victorias. En un mundo de muerte, hambre, abortos, racismo, guerra, divorcio, alcoholismo, familias desintegradas y explotación, nos vemos como perdedores, no ganadores. Estamos tentados a caminar en la presencia de nuestras experiencias más que por la fe en las promesas de Dios. Necesitamos valentía.

María es un signo y un ejemplo glorioso de la victoria de Dios. Ella fue invicta e inmaculada desde el comienzo hasta el final, desde su inmaculada concepción hasta su gloriosa asunción. Siempre estuvo en el equipo ganador porque siempre permitió que Jesús peleara sus batallas. Observa a María. Mira lo que Jesús hizo por ella. Cree y recibe la victoria total en Cristo.

Oración: Jesús, Te damos gracias por darnos a María y a otros cristianos victoriosos que nos inspiran a perseverar.

Promesa: "María dijo entonces: 'Yo soy la servidora del Señor que se cumpla en mí lo que has dicho'" (Lc 1:38).

Alabanza: Sally amaba fervientemente a la Santísima Madre. Después de una vida de amor fiel, Jesús se llevó a Sally de esta vida en la Fiesta de la Inmaculada Concepción de María.

EL ADVIENTO

Del 1 al 24 de diciembre del 2019.

El Adviento, Vísperas de Navidad

Por: Catholic.net | Fuente: Catholic.net

El Adviento es el comienzo del Año Litúrgico, empieza el domingo más próximo al 1 de diciembre y termina el 24 de diciembre. Son los cuatro domingos anteriores a la Navidad y forma una unidad con la Navidad y la Epifanía.

El término "Adviento" viene del latín adventus, que significa venida, llegada. El color usado en la liturgia de la Iglesia durante este tiempo es el morado. Con el Adviento comienza un nuevo año litúrgico en la Iglesia
