QUOTES FROM THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX

Feast Day: October 1

“Miss no single opportunity of making some small sacrifice, here by a smiling look, there by a kindly word; always doing the smallest right and doing it all for love.”

“For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy.”

“Without love, deeds, even the most brilliant, count as nothing.”

“The world's thy ship and not thy home.”

“If every tiny flower wanted to be a rose, spring would lose its loveliness.”

“Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be.”

SUPPORT WOMEN AND SAVE BABIES IN RENO!

THAT is our goal as we pray alongside other Christians as part of the national 40 Days for Life prayer crusade. We will show God's love to our local community as we gather to pray 24/7 (that's right...24 hours a day for 40 days!) outside our local Reno abortion clinic, West End Women's Medical Group (5915 Tyrone Road in Reno). But we need YOU! We are calling YOU and your family and friends to come and pray with us to save the lives of unborn babies! HELL, NO!

"I am tortured in these flames." —Luke 16:24

Jesus told a parable about a rich man who was in the netherworld — an allusion to what we would call "hell." The rich man was in hell not because he was rich or because he refused to help the poor man, Lazarus. The rich man went to hell because he was insensitive to Lazarus. He didn't even notice the poor man at his door, although even dogs noticed Lazarus (see Lk 16:20-21). The rich man was not only insensitive to Lazarus but also to Moses and the prophets, that is, the Bible (Lk 16:31). The rich man and his five brothers had put themselves in such a state of spiritual stupor that they would not have been fazed "even if one should rise from the dead" (Lk 16:31). The rich man deadened his spiritual sensitivity by a worldly lifestyle. He "dressed in purple and linen and feasted splendidly every day" (Lk 16:19). He was complacent, living for comfort, enjoyment, entertainment, and pleasure (see Am 6:4-6). A worldly lifestyle doesn't necessarily put a person in hell, but it puts a person in such a state of addiction to self that he chooses hell.

It is tempting to want to live a worldly lifestyle. However, Christians, who have been baptized into a supernatural new life, sometimes live a worldly, soul-numbing lifestyle. How can this be? These Christians are not living their Baptisms. Instead of rejecting Satan, all his works, and all his empty promises, we can fall into the temptation to reject "the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit" (2 Cor 13:13). Jesus died so that we would all go to heaven. His will be done.

Prayer: Father, make me so secure in Your love that I will not become empty.

Promise: "Take firm hold on the everlasting life to which you were called when, in the presence of many witnesses, you made your noble profession of faith." —1 Tm 6:12

Praise: Majesty, might, and power be to Jesus now and for ages to come. Amen (Jude 25).

IS GOD INVITING YOU TO BECOME CATHOLIC?

"Life is filled with many invitations! Some invitations can lead us to totally unexpected experiences. We extend to you an invitation that can lead you to a life of love, faith and hope as you learn to walk with the Lord." (stambrose.us/rcia) The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is a process where you can experience the Catholic faith in community. It is an opportunity for questions to be answered and for learning about the teachings and traditions of the Catholic Church.

Who can join the RCIA?

- A person who has not been baptized and would like to learn more about the Catholic faith and is considering the possibility of becoming Catholic.
- A Baptized Christian of another denomination who would like to learn about and possibly join the Catholic tradition.
- A baptized Catholic who has not received Eucharist or Confirmation.

If this invitation is for you, please contact Fr. Mauricio mauricioh650@gmail.com (530) 544-3533 Ext. 102.

WHAT'S THE SMOKE FOR?

Dear Johan,

Why do we wash feet on Holy Thursday? I used to worship in a parish where we washed hands. That seems much more hygienic.

Gentle Reader,

Let me tell you a story. One Holy Thursday, long ago, I celebrated the Sacred Triduum at the motherhouse of a religious community. Before the service of the Lord's Supper, I watched several elderly sisters being brought into the chapel. Their wheelchairs were lined up around the altar. Others came in using their walkers. Still others walked on the arm of another sister or a nurse. The service was simple, yet very beautiful. At the time of the footwashing, the priest suggested that we were going to wash one another's feet. As a liturgical purist, I was simply mortified at the thought. What could this mean? Why were we straying from the custom of the priest washing the feet of twelve men, symbolizing Christ washing the feet of the apostles?

I swallowed my liturgical pride and tried to enter into the experience. As I was pondering all this, I noticed a sister being helped to the front of the chapel. When she arrived at the row of wheelchairs, she was helped to her knees in front of one of her sisters. Gently and with great difficulty, she took the slippers off her sister's feet. A bowl with water was brought to them. She placed her sister's feet in the water and tenderly washed them. Then she dried them and kissed them. I felt tears running down my cheeks. These feet, which had walked in the service of the church for more than seventy years, were tenderly washed by these hands, which had served the church for more than sixty years. In that moment I finally got why Jesus told us to wash one another's feet. It is all about bending down in humility to serve one another.

The washing of the feet is not a superfluous ritual gesture or a simple reenactment of what Jesus did two thousand years ago. Rather it is an efficacious ritual rehearsal of what all of us are called to do every day of our life. That's why we wash feet on Holy Thursday. You will not get this from washing hands. And by the way, there is nothing hygienic about the Gospel as it is all about getting dirty with those who are dirty.

WHY HAVE EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

If the Mass is the source and summit of the entire Christian life, then why have Eucharistic Adoration?

The celebration of the Most Holy Eucharist is, certainly, the "fount and apex" of the entire Christian Life. ¹Yet the "spiritual life . . . is not limited solely to participation in the liturgy." ²Pope John Paul II calls worship of the Most Holy Eucharist outside Mass "an important daily practice [that] becomes an inexhaustible source of holiness"³ and a practice of "inestimable value for the life of the Church," so much so that "it is the responsibility of Pastors to encourage, also by their personal witness, the practice of Eucharistic adoration, and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in particular, as well as prayer of adoration before Christ present under the Eucharistic species."⁴

QUOTES FROM SAINT THÉRÈSE OF LISIEUX

Feast Day of Saint Thérèse: October 1

“When one loves, one does not calculate.”

“I understood that every flower created by Him is beautiful, that the brilliance of the rose and the whiteness of the lily do not lessen the perfume of the violet or the sweet simplicity of the daisy. I understood that if all the lowly flowers wished to be roses, nature would no longer be enamelled with lovely hues. And so it is in the world of souls, Our lord's living garden.”

“A word or a smile is often enough to put fresh life in a despondent soul.”

“Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you—for you alone? He burns with the desire to come into your heart... don't listen to the demon, laugh at him, and go without fear to receive the Jesus of peace and love...”

BIBLE STUDY ON KING DAVID | Tuesday, October 1, 15, 22 & 29 at 9am

October 1: Saint Therese of Lisieux

October 15: The Law of the Gift & Your Servant is listening

October 22: Warrior of God & Gather in Jerusalem

October 29: House of God & Absalom, my Son!

David is the paradigmatic king in the Old Testament. His kingship recalls that of Adam in the Garden of Eden, and yet it points toward the King par excellence, Jesus Christ. In David the King, Bishop Barron helps us to understand this pivotal figure in light of the first king and the King of kings.

Adam was the first king and steward of the rightly ordered Garden of Eden. He was called to govern the garden according to God's mind and purpose, but by allowing negative influences to wreak havoc on Eden, he did not fulfill his kingly responsibility. Long after Adam, David emerged as the definitive king who would restore order in the Garden and bring the world under the lordship of God. But like Adam, David fell, and his reign ushered in a succession of compromised kings and rejected prophets.

The New Testament, however, foretold a son of David who would realize the fullness of Israelite kingship...but whose actual reign defied expectation.

King David causes us to look back toward Adam's kingship and forward toward Christ the King, seeing Christ as the fulfillment of the Davidic line and the realization of the Kingdom of God on earth. <https://www.wofdigital.org/david-the-king>

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thursday, October 3, immediately following the 8 a.m. Mass, from 8:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.

Pope John Paul II speaks in his encyclical letter Ecclesia de Eucharistia of the ways the Second Vatican Council has lead the faithful to more active participation in liturgical practices and encourages adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament. The Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops urges pastors to provide opportunity for their church members to gather around the Blessed Sacrament.

Father Mauricio is providing this opportunity for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament this week starting Thursday, October 3, immediately following the 8 a.m. Mass, from 8:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Please use the sign-up sheets to commit to a time to share in Eucharistic Adoration.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has published a resource of the Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy with information and topics to help us with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as we make our journey towards Heaven. A topic will be published each week in the bulletin to assist us.

CITAS Y FRASES DE SANTA TERESA DE LISIEUX

"En el lavadero mi compañera de trabajo sacudía la ropa con tal fuerza que me salpicaba de jabón la cara. Esto me hacía sufrir, pero jamás le dije nada al respecto, y así ofrecía este pequeño sacrificio por los pecadores."

"Yo nunca aconsejo nada a nadie sin haberme encomendado a la Virgen Santísima. Ella es la que hace que las palabras que digo tengan eficacia en los que las escuchan".

"La vida es un instante entre dos eternidades."

"¡Qué grande es el poder de la oración! Se diría que es una reina que en todo momento tiene acceso directo al rey y puede conseguir todo lo que le pide."

"La Santísima Virgen me demuestra que nunca deja de protegerme. Enseguida que la invoco, tanto si me sobreviene una inquietud cualquiera, un apuro, inmediatamente recurro a ella, y siempre se hace cargo de mis intereses como la más tierna de las Madres."

CITAS Y FRASES DE SANTA TERESA DE LISIEUX

"Mi caminito es el camino de una infancia espiritual, el camino de la confianza y una entrega absoluta".

"Para mí, la oración es un impulso del corazón, una simple mirada dirigida al cielo, un grito de agradecimiento y de amor, tanto en medio del sufrimiento como en medio de la alegría. En una palabra, es algo grande, algo sobrenatural que me dilata el alma y me une a JESÚS."

"No poseo el valor para buscar plegarias hermosas en los libros; al no saber cuales escoger, reacciono como los niños; le digo sencillamente al buen Dios lo que necesito, y Él siempre me comprende."

"Lo que me impulsa a ir al Cielo es el pensamiento de poder encender en amor de Dios una multitud de almas que le alabarán eternamente."

"Quisiera yo también encontrar un ascensor para elevarme hasta Jesús, porque soy demasiado pequeña para subir la dura escalera de la perfección".

ADORACIÓN EUCARÍSTICA

Los jueves 3 y 17 de octubre de 8:30am a 1pm

"La Iglesia y el mundo tienen una gran necesidad del culto eucarístico Jesús nos espera en este sacramento del amor No nos negamos el tiempo para ir a encontrarlo en la adoración, en la contemplación llena de fe y abierta a reparar las faltas graves y delitos del mundo. No cese nunca nuestra adoración". (CIC 1380)

¿MIDIENDO A LO ALTO O A LO ANCHO?

"Un hombre que tenía en la mano una cuerda de medir" (Zacarías 2:5).

En una visión, el profeta Zacarías levantó sus ojos y vio a un hombre midiendo Jerusalén en preparación para su restauración (Zac 2:6; ver también Ez 40:3). A san Juan, el apóstol y evangelista, también le dieron una vara de medir para "medir el Templo de Dios, el altar y a los adoradores que encuentres allí" (Ap 11:1). El pueblo de Dios fue medido para protegerlos de la destrucción.

El Señor aún está midiendo a la gente. En el primer día de la Iglesia, el Señor midió el tamaño de Su Iglesia, y esta alcanzó tres mil creyentes (Hch 2:41). El Señor no solo mide el número de la Iglesia sino también su santidad.

Finalmente, la Iglesia medirá hacia arriba según Sus estándares: "una Iglesia resplandeciente, sin mancha ni arruga y sin ningún defecto, sino santa e inmaculada" (Ef 5:27). El Señor también mide tiempo, talentos, tesoros y mucho más. Si Él nos da cinco talentos, Él espera que le devolvamos cinco más (Mt 25:15ss).

El Señor nos está midiendo a cada uno de nosotros ahora mismo. Él nos está dando la gracia de dar la talla antes de la medida final el Día del Juicio. ¿Estás midiendo a lo alto o "a lo ancho"?

Oración: Padre, que conozca "extraordinaria grandeza" del "poder con el que obra en nosotros, los creyentes" (Ef 1:19).

Promesa: "Yo cambiaré su duelo en alegría, los alegraré y los consolaré de su aflicción" (Jer 31:13).

Alabanza: San Jerónimo tradujo casi toda la Biblia al Latín. También escribió comentarios sobre los Evangelios.

¡Alabado seas Jesús, Palabra Viva por el ministerio de san Jerónimo!

CÓMO DIOS PRETENDE QUE VIVAMOS

Las lecturas de hoy una vez más están dirigidas a los creyentes, comunidades de fe. Así como la lectura de la semana pasada. Amós nos conforta con una condena de aquellos cuyas vidas están enfocadas en el placer y la auto absorción. El Salmo contrasta ese enfoque con el del Señor: justicia para los oprimidos, alimentos para los hambrientos, libertad para los cautivos, vista para los ciegos, levantar a los agachados, amor al justo, proteger a los extranjeros, huérfanos y las viudas; y al hacerlo, frustrando el camino a los malvados. Timoteo nos insta a la búsqueda de la justicia, la devoción, la fe, el amor, la paciencia y la mansedumbre. Lucas cuenta la historia familiar de un hombre rico y un mendigo en su puerta, que lleva una vida muy diferente en este mundo y en el otro. Una vez más estamos recibiendo indicaciones acerca de cómo Dios quiere que vivamos nuestras vidas.
