"THE MIND OF CHRIST" (1 COR 2:16)

"Then who can be saved?" —Matthew 19:25

Jesus came that all people might be saved (1 Tm 2:4). His focus was on seeking and saving the lost (Lk 19:10), not satisfying His own needs.

We humans tend to focus on our needs and desires. Therefore, we need a new heart (Ez 36:26) and a new mind to do the work to which God has called us. Jesus gives us a clean, new heart (Ps 51:12) and He shares His mind with us, so we can "have the mind of Christ" (1 Cor 2:16). Then we can focus on God's priorities instead of our own needs.

For example, instead of spending our lives focused on accumulating money, we will focus on accumulating souls for the kingdom of heaven. Instead of spending our lives worrying about paying the bills, we focus on allowing God to provide for our genuine needs while we are occupied with doing His will and leading people into a new life in Christ.

God knows everything we need before we ask Him (Mt 6:32). He is not stingy, but exceedingly generous. He is just, and though He demands that we bear fruit for His kingdom, He will not fail to provide for and bless those who spend their lives working for His sake (see Heb 6:10). Therefore, set your mind on heaven, and the Lord of heaven. Focus not on your needs, but on His desires. He wants His house to be full (Lk 14:23). Give Him the present He desires, a rich harvest of souls.

Prayer: Father, may my life testify to the world that I firmly believe that all things are possible with You (Mt 19:26).

Promise: "The Lord is with you, O champion!" —Jgs 6:12

Praise: St. Bernard of Clairvaux's achievements are too numerous to list. In the Latin West, he was truly the "Man of the Twelfth Century".

TRUTH SOMETIMES HURTS

Jeremiah " 'ought to be put to death,' the princes said to the king; 'he demoralizes the soldiers who are left in this city, and all the people, by speaking such things to them.' "
—Jeremiah 38:4

The Lord commands us to speak the truth in love (Eph 4:15). If we fail to try to dissuade others from their wicked conduct, God holds us responsible for their deaths (Ez 3:18). We must be men and women of the truth.

However, in a world of lies, the truth and those who speak it are rejected. For example, Jeremiah spoke the truth and was thrown into a muddy cistern where he was left to starve (Jer 38:6, 9). Often when we speak the truth, our families will reject us. "A household of five will be divided three against two and two against three" (Lk 12:52). Therefore, we naturally don't want to speak the truth, although the Lord holds us responsible to do so.

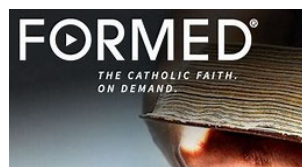

The only Way out of this dilemma is Jesus, Who is not only truthful but the Truth Himself (Jn 14:6). He is the Truth Who sets us free (Jn 8:32). In Jesus, in the Truth, we will speak and live the truth, no matter if we have to die for the truth (see Sir 4:28). Our love for Jesus will make us true. Because God is Love (1 Jn 4:16), we have the courage to live for God, the Truth. Speak and do the truth in love (Eph 4:15).

Prayer: Father, in the name of Jesus, I receive the Spirit of Truth (see Jn 14:17).

Promise: "For the sake of the joy which lay before Him He endured the cross, heedless of its shame. He has taken His seat at the right of the throne of God. Remember how He endured the opposition of sinners; hence do not grow despondent or abandon the struggle. In your fight against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood." —Heb 12:2-4

Praise: Praise You, risen Jesus, our Redeemer! You atoned for our sins and paid our infinite debt of sin. Glory to You forever.

WHAT'S THE SMOKE FOR?

Dear Johan,

It seems like your church bells toll even when you don't have liturgy. Unlike other neighbors, I enjoy them but I would like to know why you ring them.

Gentle Reader,

Your keen sense of the acoustical landscape is to be commended. We do indeed ring them, even when we don't have liturgy. Beyond announcing services, church bells provide the acoustical décor for our churches. In a certain sense they are the voice of our churches.

While living in Belgium I used to delight in the glorious cacophony of church bells ringing almost the entire morning. When I moved to the United States I missed the sound of the bells. I thought the acoustical landscape the poorer for their absence.

Church bells are rung for different reasons. First and foremost, they are used to announce the liturgical life of the church. You will notice that before Sunday Eucharist, before weddings and funerals, the bells are rung. Each liturgy and each liturgical season has its own combination of bells, so as to allow the faithful to know which liturgy is going to take place. Did you know that church bells are completely silenced from the Gloria on Holy Thursday to the Gloria during the Easter Vigil?

Second, church bells are used to mark the times of the day. They do that in a twofold manner. On the one hand, they simply announce the time. Bells often toll on the hour and on the half hour. On the other hand, bells also mark prayer times. For centuries bells have invited people to a moment of private prayer in the morning, at noon, and in the evening. As the faithful heard the bells they would stop working, be they in the fields, in the factory, or at home, and everyone would pray the same prayer: the Angelus. The name for this prayer is derived from the Latin version of the traditional prayer said at that time, which begins as follows: Angelus Domini nuntiavit Mariae or "The angel of the Lord declared unto Mary." It may be a romantic notion or a nostalgic longing, yet, it seems important that the church call people to stop at certain times of the day to focus on God.

Part of the prayer for the dedication of bells goes as follows: "May their voice direct our hearts toward you and prompt us to come gladly to this church" (Order for the Blessing of Bells, chap. 37 in Book of Blessings). So when you hear them, please join us in church or stop for a moment of private prayer.

CATHOLIC HUMOR

The Catholic school teacher asks, "Now, little Johnny, tell me honestly, do you say prayers before eating?" "No, sir," little Johnny replies, "I don't have to. My mom is a good cook."

A GRATEFUL DEATH

When we think about death, we often think about what will happen to us after we have died. But it is more important to think about what will happen to those we leave behind. The way we die has a deep and lasting effect on those who stay alive. It will be easier for our family and friends to remember us with joy and peace if we have said a grateful good-bye than if we die with bitter and disillusioned hearts.

The greatest gift we can offer our families and friends is the gift of gratitude. Gratitude sets them free to continue their lives without bitterness or self-recrimination. <https://henrinouwen.org/meditation/a-grateful-death/>

THE COMPANIONSHIP OF THE DEAD

As we grow older we have more and more people to remember, people who have died before us. It is very important to remember those who have loved us and those we have loved. Remembering them means letting their spirits inspire us in our daily lives. They can become part of our spiritual communities and gently help us as we make decisions on our journeys. Parents, spouses, children, and friends can become true spiritual companions after they have died.

Sometimes they can become even more intimate to us after death than when they were with us in life.

Remembering the dead is choosing their ongoing companionship.

BEING READY TO DIE

Death often happens suddenly. A car accident, a plane crash, a fatal fight, a war, a flood, and so on. When we feel healthy and full of energy, we do not think much about our deaths. Still, death might come very unexpectedly. How can we be prepared to die? By not having any unfinished relational business. The question is: Have I forgiven those who have hurt me and asked forgiveness from those I have hurt? When I feel at peace with all the people I live with, my death might cause great grief, but it will not cause guilt or anger.

When we are ready to die at any moment, we also are ready to live at any moment.

PROMOTING LIFE

Pope Francis: Abortion is also a form of the abuse of children.

"It is difficult to grasp the phenomenon of the sexual abuse of minors without considering power, since it is always the result of an abuse of power, an exploitation of the inferiority and vulnerability of the abused, which makes possible the manipulation of their conscience and of their psychological and physical weakness. The abuse of power is likewise present in the other forms of abuse affecting almost 85,000,000 children, forgotten by everyone: child soldiers, child prostitutes, starving children, children kidnapped and often victimized by the horrid commerce of human organs or enslaved, child victims of war, refugee children, aborted children and so many others." – Pope Francis Address at the End of the Eucharistic Celebration at the Meeting "The Protection of Minors in the Church", February 24, 2019

ESCUCHA A JESÚS Y A LOS PROFETAS | Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Los profetas siempre han tenido un hueso muy duro que roer. Sus palabras, a menudo poco deseadas ser escuchadas, se usan en contra de ellos para perseguirlos y aún para matarlos. Ese fue el destino de muchos profetas del Antiguo Testamento, y Jeremías es uno de esos grandes ejemplos. Jesús trato con pecadores y aceptó su muerte y luego resucitó a una vida gloriosa. El último profeta, Jesús buscó prevenir a las personas de su tiempo y del nuestro de las divisiones que sus palabras causarían, mostrándose él mismo ser el profeta de todo el tiempo. Todos necesitamos ver a nuestras divisiones y dilemas a la luz de las enseñanzas y advertencias, y buscar comprender todo lo que él proclamó y enseñó de las cosas que pasarían si no lo escuchamos.

DOCTOR DONANTE

"Les daré un corazón nuevo" (Ezequiel 36:26).

Debido al efecto del pecado en la raza humana, el corazón humano "no tiene arreglo" (Jer 7:9). No puede ser arreglado, controlado, educado o mejorado lo suficiente como para agradar a Dios o para darnos el poder de vivir una vida libre, plenamente humana. Estamos condenados a menos que podamos conseguir un trasplante de corazón. Nuestro problema es que todos los donantes también tienen el corazón defectuoso. Ellos también necesitan un trasplante de corazón y están buscando donantes. Necesitamos ser salvados de esta situación imposible.

Solo Jesús es el Salvador. Él es a la vez el Doctor (ver Mc 2:17) y el Donante. ¿Cómo puede el médico ser el Donante a menos que pudiera darnos Su corazón (ver Jn 19:34) y luego resucitar de entre los muertos para realizar la operación? ¿Cómo puede el médico ser el Donante a menos que Él sea un ser humano con un corazón humano, y al mismo tiempo ser Dios para resucitar de entre los muertos y hacer lo imposible? Solo un Dios-Hombre puede hacer lo que la raza humana necesita. Solo el Dios-Hombre, Jesús, tiene el poder de cumplir la promesa de Dios para darnos un corazón nuevo.

Entrega tu corazón y vida a Jesús. Arrepiéntete del pecado. Acéptalo como Salvador, Señor y Dios. Recibe Su corazón.

Promesa: "Salgan a los cruces de los caminos e inviten a todos los que encuentren" (Mt 22:9).

Alabanza: Cuando Grace se encuentra con una persona difícil, le pide a Dios que le dé Su corazón a esa persona; Él lo hace y el amor de ella se renueva.

PICNIC PARROQUIAL | Jueves 22 de agosto a las 5:30pm

A-D prostres,

E-H fruta, bocadillos o sodas,

I-Z un platillo para compartir.

OCUPACIÓN

El valor de la vida no depende del lugar que ocupemos. Depende de cómo ocupemos ese lugar.

—Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús

¿CONSUMIDOR O CONSUMIDO?

"El que tiene apego a su vida la perderá" (Juan 12:25).

San Lorenzo es el patrón de regalos generosos. Se dice que dio los tesoros de la Iglesia a los pobres. Lorenzo sembró generosa y alegremente. Ahora recoge la cosecha abundante de vidas transformadas incluso siglos después de su muerte (ver 2 Co 9:6). Lorenzo no solo dio posesiones al Señor sino que entregó su vida por Él sufriendo alegremente el martirio en la hoguera. Él era como un grano de trigo que cae en tierra, muere y produce mucho fruto (Jn 12:24).

La vida y muerte de Lorenzo muestran que Dios quiere no solo todo nuestro dinero y posesiones, sino también todo nuestro tiempo, energía, relaciones, trabajo, vida y muerte. El Señor nos manda que lo amemos con todo nuestro corazón de la forma más radical (Mt 22:37).

"Nuestro Dios es un fuego devorador" (Heb 12:29).

Estamos acostumbrados a ser consumidores. Sin embargo, cuando le damos nuestras vidas al Señor, ya no somos principalmente los consumidores, sino los consumidos. Estamos tentados a resistir esto, pero, de alguna manera, vamos a ser consumidos por algo - trabajo, comportamiento compulsivo, televisión, deportes, comida, cigarrillos, la ira, los celos, etc. Si dejamos que Dios nos consuma, entonces no seremos degradados, sino amados. Por lo tanto, da y da al amor consumidor de Dios.

Oración: Padre, úsame y consume mi vida.

Promesa: "Les dará a ustedes la semilla en abundancia, y hará crecer los frutos de su justicia" (2 Co 9:10).

Alabanza: Cuando el prefecto de Roma exigió tesoros de la Iglesia, san Lorenzo reunió a los pobres y enfermos que la Iglesia había ayudado, y dijo: "¡Este es el tesoro de la Iglesia!"
