WHY PRAY?

Why should I spend an hour in prayer when I do nothing during that time but think about people I am angry with, people who are angry with me, books I should read, and books I should write, and thousands of other silly things that happen to grab my mind for a moment?

The answer is: because God is greater than my mind and my heart and what is really happening in the house of prayer is not measurable in terms of human success and failure.

What I must do first of all is to be faithful. If I believe that the first commandment is to love God with my whole heart, mind, and soul, then I should at least be able to spend one hour a day with nobody else but God. The question as to whether it is helpful, useful, practical, or fruitful is completely irrelevant, since the only reason to love is love itself. Everything else is secondary.

The remarkable thing, however, is that sitting in the presence of God for one hour each morning—day after day, week after week, month after month—in total confusion and with myriad distractions radically changes my life. God, who loves me so much that he sent his only Son not to condemn me but to save me, does not leave me waiting in the dark too long. I might think that each hour is useless, but after thirty or sixty or ninety such useless hours, I gradually realize that I was not as alone as I thought; a very small, gentle voice has been speaking to me far beyond my noisy place. So, be confident and trust in the Lord.

THE PROBLEM WITH THE KING

"There was an inscription over His head: THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS." —Luke 23:38

When we acknowledge that Jesus is our King, we imply that we are His subjects. It is so difficult for us to be subjects, for when we pray "Thy kingdom come," that means His will, not ours, is to be done (see Mt 6:10). When we enthrone Jesus as our King, we must necessarily dethrone ourselves.

It is even more challenging for a citizen of the USA to be a subject. Our country is founded on the rejection of subjection to the King of England. Many people have come to the USA to escape from being subjected to kings. Our form of government is an alternative to being subjected to kings. We have made a "declaration of independence" from subjection to kings.

Moreover, if we subject ourselves to King Jesus, we subject ourselves to a crucified King. If a king made us prosperous and victorious, we may be able to tolerate being his subjects. But why would we accept a King Who wouldn't protect us from suffering and death? A crucified King probably would not make it a priority to preserve the American lifestyle. He could "ruin everything." If Jesus insisted on being our King, and we insisted upon preserving our own independence, we probably would have no alternative but to crucify Him.

What will you do with Christ the King? Will you sneer (Lk 23:35) and jeer at Him (Lk 23:36) or fear and draw near Him? Will you revile Him (Lk 23:39) or subject yourself to Him?

Prayer: King "Jesus, remember me" (Lk 23:42).

Promise: "He rescued us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of His beloved Son." —Col 1:13

Praise: Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King in 1925. He appealed to individuals and states, admonishing that lasting peace is only realized when we submit to the rule of our Savior.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT November 23 & 24

Please be generous in this week's special collection, which supports the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people live in poverty. Through this collection you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for people across the country who struggle. In addition 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects.

Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development can be found at

WASTE SOME TIME WITH GOD

In our utilitarian culture, where we suffer from a collective compulsion to do something practical, helpful, or useful, and where we feel compelled to make a contribution that can give us a sense of worth, contemplative prayer is a form of radical criticism. It is not useful or practical. It is simply to waste time for and with God. It cuts a hole in our busyness and reminds us and others that it is God and not we who creates and sustains the world. <https://henrinouwen.org/meditation/waste-some-time-with-god/>

NOVEMBER | Universal: Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

¡VIVA CRISTO REY! BY SR. THERESA MARIE NGUYEN, O.P.

"Who is this King of glory?" –Psalm 24:10

"¡Viva, Cristo Rey!" was the resounding battle cry of the Cristeros in their struggle against the violent imposition of a secularist, anti-Catholic, anti-clerical state in Mexico during La Cristiada (1926-1929), a war described by Graham Greene as "the fiercest persecution of religion anywhere since the reign of Elizabeth."

"¡Viva Cristo Rey!" was also the final confession on the lips of Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro, a martyr of the Cristeros war. He was not a resistance fighter but a Catholic priest of wit and courage who selflessly ran a clandestine ministry during the treacherous reign of President Plutarco Calles. In 1927, Father Miguel was falsely charged and sentenced to death without due trial for the attempted assassination of Mexico's former president, President Álvaro Obregón. The photographs of his execution were ordered by President Calles and were intended to show the cowardly death of a Catholic priest. Ironically, what has been seared into our collective historical memory is the very opposite of what Calles intended. The photographs immortalize an otherworldly truth.

Both literally and figuratively, Father Miguel's life and death take the form of the cross. With arms outstretched in cruciform, rosary in one hand and a crucifix in the other, facing the firing squad with fierce and fearless serenity, Miguel Pro defied every worldly power. It is said that he cried out in a clear and steady voice, "¡Viva Cristo Rey!" just as the bullets riddled his body.

As with the Cristeros war, our fight to protect religious freedom today is a fight for the right to live and love, to serve and worship the one true God. Like Bl. Miguel Pro, we too seek to testify to the truth of the kingship of Jesus Christ in all of life. When we confess with our lips and know in our hearts that Christ is Lord and King, we come to experience the "glorious freedom of the children of God" (Rm 8:21) just as Blessed Miguel Pro and the cloud of witnesses who have gone before us experienced.

This year's Solemnity of Christ the King occurs one day after the 92nd anniversary of the martyrdom of Blessed Miguel Agustín Pro.

May this Solemnity of the King of kings and Lord of lords as well as its prelude in the anniversary of Blessed Miguel Pro's death remind us of the true King who stoops to wash our feet, who turns the other cheek, who reigns from the cross with a mighty scepter of love, and who wields the powers of mercy and forgiveness and lays down his life for love of us. His kingdom is not of this world (Jn 18:36) but of the next. May we always keep that at the forefront of our minds. "¡Viva, Cristo Rey!" <http://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/religious-liberty/christ-the-king/nguyen-long-live-christ-the-king.cfm>

IN HONOR OF JESUS CHRIST, THE ETERNAL KING

Of every pond and stream that flows,

Of every rock and pebble small,
Of every river and ocean wide,
Out every mountain vast and tall,

Of every moon and star above,
Of every storm and rain and hail,
Of sleet and fog, of ice and smog,
Of summer breeze and winter gale,

Of every island in the sea,
Of every animal that walks,
Or crawls or swims or flies or rests,
Or chirps or barks or howls or squawks,

Of every place by men unknown,
Not yet discovered or explored,
Of every height and every depth,
Of sites beloved and abhorred,

Of every kingdom, empire, state,
Dominion, country, monarchy
Of village small and city great
Of men of power and majesty,

Of house and home and property,
Of kitchen and of living room,
Of bedroom, hallway, stairway long,
Of playground and of working room,

Of every act, desire, and wish,
Longing, passion, weakness, strength,
Of every heart that longs and laughs,
And cries and tries and waits at length,

Of all who suffer and who wait
For justice or for daily bread,
Of all who triumph and are glad,
Of all who middle paths do tread,

Of every woman, man and child,
Of every creature large and small,
Of every sinner, saint and angel,
Jesus Christ is King of all!

Yes He is King; yes, Christ is King!
No start or end and never failing,
His reign engulfs infinity
O'er all existing things prevailing.

Yet men are weak and often question
When many evil things they see.
Christ waits for them to realize
That He is wiser than are we.

He is aware of all that is,
He knows our problems, needs and fears,
His Providence is now at work
And Jesus' final triumph nears.

Then let us rise in greater faith
To tell the world of His great name,
That when the King returns, we may
For lack of faith not blush with shame. Amen!

BOOK STUDY | Tuesdays at 9am in the Parish Center

Catching Fire, Becoming Flame: A Guide for Spiritual Transformation by Fr. Albert Haase, OFM

IF YOU WANT TO BE PART OF THIS STUDY, PLEASE BUY YOUR BOOK.

Ever wonder how some people become enthusiastic and on fire about their relationship with God? In thirty-three short chapters, Albert Haase gives you the tools and kindling to prepare for the spark of God in your life – and then shows you how to fan it into flame until you are set ablaze. This book glows with time-tested wisdom as an experienced spiritual director shares the secrets of the saints. Feel cold? Or maybe just smoldering? With supplemental reading suggestions and reflection questions, this eminently practical book functions like a personal, spiritual retreat.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thursday, December 5, immediately following the 8 a.m. Mass, from 8:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Please sign up for 30 minutes or 1 hour. The sign-up sheets are in the vestibule.

WHAT IS THE SOCIAL ASPECT OF EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION?

“Devotion to the divine Eucharist exerts a great influence upon the soul in the direction of fostering a ‘social’ love, in which we put the common good ahead of private good, take up the cause of the community, the parish, the universal Church, and extend our charity to the whole world because we know that there are members of Christ everywhere This zeal at prayer and at devoting oneself to God for the sake of the unity of the Church is something that religious, both men and women, should regard as very specially their own since they are bound in a very special way to adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and they have, by virtue of the vows they have pronounced, become a kind of crown set around it here on earth.” MF, nos. 69, 71 Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, A Resource of the Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy, Bishops’ Committee on the Liturgy United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

ADVENT CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER GROUP

Wednesday, December 4, 11 & 18 at 6:30pm in the School Building

An Advent Contemplative Prayer Group is starting on December 4th. The group will be meeting on Wednesdays during Advent from 6:30-7:30pm. This group is an opportunity for parishioners to slow down in the midst of the holiday rush, and connect with God and each other midweek. Each week, participants will practice a different contemplative prayer together, and be encouraged to practice greater awareness of God throughout the week.

DE REYES Y REINADOS

Los estadounidenses tienen una relación incomoda con los reyes. La Revolución Estadounidense se peleó para lograr la independencia del Rey Jorge, después de todo. Sin embargo, hoy cada iglesia católica alrededor del mundo celebra la Solemnidad del Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo. La celebración de hoy de la Iglesia nos invita a ver más allá de nuestras lealtades nacionales y regocijarnos en nuestra primera identidad. Somos hijos de Dios en Jesús, Cristo el Rey. Nuestras lecturas nos ayudan a considerar cómo pertenecer al Reino de Dios. El libro de Samuel captura el profundo anhelo de los israelitas por un rey que los pastoree. San Pablo recuerda a los colosenses que pertenecemos al reino de Cristo, cuyo poder alaba en un hermoso himno. Por último, el Evangelio de Lucas evoca el tipo de rey que Jesús elige ser, un siervo sufriente, un hombre para los demás. Al sacrificar su vida por nosotros, Jesús abre las puertas del Paraíso.

QUÉ ALEGRÍA CUANDO ME DIJERON:

"Vamos a la casa del Señor". — Salmo 122 (121):1

EL ÚLTIMO REY

"Sobre su cabeza había una inscripción: 'ESTE ES EL REY DE LOS JUDIOS' " (Lucas 23:38).

En el último domingo del Año de la Fe, el Señor nos llama a cosechar todas las gracias de este año que culmina haciendo la mayor profesión de fe que hayamos hecho. El Señor Jesús nos llama a reconocerlo como el Rey de los Reyes, el Señor de los Señores, aun en las peores circunstancias. Las autoridades religiosas continúan burlándose de Jesús haciendo tratos con el mundo (Lc 23:35). Los soldados también se burlan de Jesús y de todos aquellos que rehúsan unirse a la burla (Lc 23:36). Los criminales insisten en blasfemar a Jesús (Lc 23:39). El pueblo, cristianos, estaban mirando (Lc 23:35). Ellos sabían que si hablaban por Jesús, ellos también serían crucificados.

Por lo tanto, nosotros deberíamos ser como el buen ladrón y hablar a favor de Jesús (Lc 23:40). Tal vez seamos los únicos que reconozcamos a Jesús como nuestro Rey. Tal vez hasta seamos crucificados por que no estamos de acuerdo con el pueblo. Sin embargo, nosotros hablaremos por Jesús, aunque esto signifique arrepentimiento, llevar la cruz diaria (Lc 9:23), rechazo y persecución. Nos regocijaremos viviendo como sujetos del Rey Jesús. Luego seremos reyes y reinas (1 Pe 2:9; Ap 5:10). Mas tarde, estaremos viviendo por siempre con el Rey Jesús en el paraíso (Lc 23:43).

Oración: Rey Jesús, que no viva para mi sino para Ti (2Cor 5:15).

Promesa: "Él es antes que todas las cosas y todas subsisten en Él" (Col 1:17).

Alabanza: ¡Aleluya! Rey Jesús, te adoramos y entregamos nuestras vidas a Ti.

COLECTA PARA CAMPAÑA CATÓLICA PARA EL DESARROLLO HUMANO

23 & 24 de noviembre de 2019

Por favor, contribuya generosamente en la colecta especial de esta semana, la cual apoya a la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano. En los Estados Unidos, una de cada seis personas vive en pobreza. A través de esta colecta usted apoya programas que tratan con las causas de la pobreza y proporcionan un futuro sostenible a las personas que siguen luchando en el país. Además, el 25% de los fondos recaudados permanece en nuestra diócesis para financiar proyectos antipobreza en nuestra comunidad. Por favor, en oración, considere la manera de apoyar a esta colecta y trabajar desde la periferia. Encuentra más información sobre la Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano, en www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

ACCIÓN DE GRACIAS | —Henry Van Dyke

La gratitud es el sentimiento interno de la bondad recibida. El agradecimiento es el impulso natural para expresar ese sentimiento. La acción de gracias es el seguimiento de ese impulso
