THE END ZONE

"These things you are contemplating — the day will come when not one stone will be left on another, but it will all be torn down." —Luke 21:6

Jesus combined predicting the fall of Jerusalem in 70 A.D. with predicting the end of the world. He did this because there will be marked similarities between the two catastrophes. Also, Jesus' accuracy regarding the fall of Jerusalem indicates the credibility of His revelations regarding the end of the world.

Jesus revealed many more details regarding the end of the world than He revealed about most other aspects of His plan. He did this to underline the fact that the end of the world is literally true and to help us prepare for it. Jesus gave us the details because we need them.

One of the most important details Jesus gave about the end of the world is: "By patient endurance you will save your lives" (Lk 21:19). We can persevere through the most savage persecution of the Church ever (see Lk 21:12), through the worst apostasy ever (2 Thes 2:3-12), and through the worst tribulation ever (Mk 13:19) because we have accepted the grace not to be proud but to fear the name of the Lord (Mal 3:19-20). This humble fear of the Lord is the beginning of love (see Dt 6:2-5). "Love covers a multitude of sins" (1 Pt 4:8) and leads us through the calamities of the end of the world into perfect, everlasting love in heaven.

The world will certainly end, as Jesus said. Learn what Jesus has revealed about it. Live and persevere in love so as to live forever with the Lord.

Prayer: Lord, direct our "hearts in the love of God and the constancy of Christ" (2 Thes 3:5).

Promise: "But for you who fear My name, there will arise the sun of justice with its healing rays." —Mal 3:20

Praise: "You put to death the Author of life. But God raised him from the dead, and we are his witnesses" (Acts 3:15).

Praise the risen Jesus!

ADVENT CONTEMPLATIVE PRAYER GROUP

Wednesday, December 4, 11 & 18
at 6:30pm in the School Building

An Advent Contemplative Prayer Group is starting on December 4th. The group will be meeting on Wednesdays during Advent from 6:30-7:30pm. This group is an opportunity for parishioners to slow down in the midst of the holiday rush, and connect with God and each other midweek. Each week, participants will practice a different contemplative prayer together, and be encouraged to practice greater awareness of God throughout the week.

RESEMBLANCE | —St. Francis de Sales

The dignity of resembling the Almighty is common to all people; we should then love them all as ourselves, as living images of the Deity. It is in this that we belong to God.

NOVEMBER | Universal: Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

WHAT'S THE SMOKE FOR?

Dear Johan,

I was told that Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI does not believe that there was an ox and a donkey present in the stable where Jesus was born. And by the way, is it a crèche or a manger? I get confused.

Gentle Reader,

Let me start with the part of the question that does not relate to papal pronouncements: crèche or manger? Crèche is an Old French word that is derived from the Old High German krippa, meaning crib. The word manger, from the Old English mangeour, is derived from the Old French maingeur, to eat, which, in turn, is derived from the Latin manducare, to chew. So, though both words relate to the place where Jesus was laid, the one calls it a baby's crib, the other a feeding trough. The latter, of course, is more in line with the Scriptures: "[A]nd she gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn" (Luke 2:7).

With regard to the presence or absence of a donkey and ox, allow me to say that since the earliest depictions of the nativity artists have always reflected the theology of the time, their own spirituality, and even their day-to-day experiences in their art. One of the earliest depictions of the nativity we know is found on a fourth-century Roman sarcophagus currently preserved in Milan. It simply shows the baby Jesus wrapped in swaddling clothes, laying in a manger with a donkey on one side and an ox on the other. The beholder is to fill in the rest of the story.

Though neither animal is mentioned in the gospels, artists may have presumed that if Jesus was born in a stable, animals would have been present. Another, more deeply theological, explanation is a reference found in the book of the prophet Isaiah: "An ox knows its owner, / and an ass, its master's manger; / But Israel does not know, / my people has not understood" (Isa 1:3). Thus the presence of an ox and donkey is an affirmation of the fact that Jesus is indeed the Messiah. Since written documents that link the depiction of the ox and donkey to this biblical passage postdate the first depictions, it may or may not have influenced the artists. Nevertheless, to us it provides a deeper level of meaning to the presence of these animals in the stable.

On an aside, I just found a wonderful nativity scene from the Amazon region of Brazil. In this rendition the artist replaced the traditional ox and donkey with some kind of wild boars. I am pretty sure there were no wild boars present at the birth of Jesus and I am pretty sure you will find no biblical substantiation for them either, and yet they are there. Who knows, maybe a few centuries from now someone will be writing about the historical and theological meaning of wild boars in the nativity scene.

CATHOLIC HUMOR | Catholic Terminology | <http://www.jokes4us.com/religiousjokes/catholicjokes.html>

AMEN: The only part of a prayer that everyone knows.

BULLETIN: Your receipt for attending Mass.

CHOIR: A group of people whose singing allows the rest of the Parish to lip-sync.

HOLY WATER: A liquid whose chemical formula is H2OLY.

HYMN: A song of praise usually sung in a key three octaves higher than that of the congregation's range. RECESSIONAL HYMN: The last song at Mass often sung a little more quietly, since most of the people have already left.

INCENSE: Holy Smoke!

JESUITS: An order of priests known for their ability to found colleges with good basketball teams.

JONAH: The original "Jaws" story.

JUSTICE: When kids have kids of their own.

KYRIE ELEISON: The only Greek words that most Catholics can recognize besides gyros and baklava.

MAGI: The most famous trio to attend a baby shower.

MANGER: Where Mary gave birth to Jesus because Joseph wasn't covered by an HMO. Holiday travel has always been rough.

PEW: A medieval torture device still found in Catholic churches.

PROCESSION: The ceremonial formation at the beginning of Mass consisting of altar servers, the celebrant, and late parishioners looking for seats.

RECESSIONAL: The ceremonial procession at the conclusion of Mass led by parishioners trying to beat the crowd to the parking lot.

RELICS: People who have been going to Mass for so long, they actually know when to sit, kneel, and stand. USHERS The only people in the parish who don't know the seating capacity of a pew.

Catching Fire, Becoming Flame: A Guide for Spiritual Transformation by Fr. Albert Haase, OFM

IF YOU WANT TO BE PART OF THIS STUDY, PLEASE BUY YOUR BOOK.

Ever wonder how some people become enthusiastic and on fire about their relationship with God? In thirty-three short chapters, Albert Haase gives you the tools and kindling to prepare for the spark of God in your life – and then shows you how to fan it into flame until you are set ablaze. This book glows with time-tested wisdom as an experienced spiritual director shares the secrets of the saints. Feel cold? Or maybe just smoldering? With supplemental reading suggestions and reflection questions, this eminently practical book functions like a personal, spiritual retreat.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thursday, November 21, immediately following the 8 a.m. Mass, from 8:30 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. Please sign up for 30 minutes or 1 hour. The sign-up sheets are in the vestibule.

WHY IS THE BLESSED SACRAMENT RESERVED IN A TABERNACLE IN EVERY CATHOLIC CHURCH?

“The tabernacle was first intended for the reservation of the Eucharist in a worthy place so that it could be brought to the sick and those absent, outside of Mass. As faith in the real presence of Christ in his Eucharist deepened, the Church became conscious of the meaning of silent adoration of the Lord present under the Eucharistic species.” CCC, no. 139, see RS, no. 129.

BLESSED IS SHE | A Study on the Ten Commandments

St. Theresa's women's ministry, Blessed Is She, is inviting all women of the parish to join us as we begin a journey through the Ten Commandments. The study will begin this Thursday, November 14th and run through the end of February, 2020.

Delivered by God to Moses on Mount Sinai, the Ten Commandments are considered to be divine law because God himself revealed it to Moses. Jesus referred to the commandments in his dialog with the rich man in Matthew's Gospel (Mt 19:16-21), and assured their validity. The Catholic Church does not see them as arbitrary rules and regulations but a very specific set of guidelines with no room for ambiguity. The commandments were created and given to us for our protection and they were created as a guide for us to make good choices that help us to live as God wanted us to. The commandments are a clear representation of man's duty to God and to his neighbor and we are obligated to follow them. To violate them knowingly and willfully is to commit mortal sin.

We will be using the Blessed Is She, Blessed Conversations series, "Reflections on the Catechism" as we begin our journey. We will delve into the meaning of each commandment by using a study guide as well as other audio, visual and reading resources to compliment the program. Any questions regarding this study or the ministry in general, please contact: Bridget Spencer @ (916) 595-2570 or at bridgetmspencer@gmail.com

HORARIO DE SALVACIÓN

"Porque llega el Día" (Malaquías 3:19)

Malaquías profetizaba sobre "el Día". Este es el último día de todos, el día en que se acaba el mundo, el día del fuego, el día de la última venida de Jesús, el día del Juicio Final.

"Porque llega el Día, abrasador como un horno. Todos los arrogantes y los que hacen el mal serán como paja; el Día que llega los consumirá, dice el Señor de los ejércitos, hasta no dejarles raíz ni rama" (Mal 3:19). "Pero para ustedes, los que temen mi Nombre, brillará el sol de justicia que trae la salud en sus rayos, y saldrán brincando como terneros bien alimentados" (Mal 3:20). Estos cristianos definitivamente necesitarán estos rayos saludables porque antes del Día Final serán maltratados, perseguidos, detenidos, traicionados, odiados, y algunos incluso serán martirizados (Lc 21:12-17). "Gracias a la constancia salvarán sus vidas" y recibirán los rayos curativos de venida final de Jesús (Lc 21:19).

¿Si Jesús regresara hoy y el mundo terminara, o si murieras hoy, estarías entre los orgullosos y los malhechores o entre quienes respetan, aman, obedecen y temen al Señor?

¿Estarías entre los perseguidos o los perseguidores? ¿Vives para Jesús o para ti mismo? ¿Él te arrojará al fuego o te curará el "brillo del Hijo?" Arrepiéntete, confíesate, ama a Jesús, sufre por Él, regocíjate en el presente, mira hacia el futuro. "Llega el Día" (Mal 3:19). ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!

Oración: Padre, que a través de mi arrepentimiento, intercesión y evangelización pueda acelerar "el Día del Señor" (2 Pe 3:12).

Promesa: "Les mandamos y los exhortamos en el Señor Jesucristo que trabajen en paz para ganarse su pan" (2 Tes 3:12).

Alabanza: ¡Aleluya! ¡Alabado sea Jesús resucitado de entre los muertos! ¡Aleluya!
