THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOR THE HEARING IMPAIRED: Hearing aids for use are in the sacristy—please return them after Mass.

With joy & happiness we welcome all of you who have come to pray and worship with us. We hope you will find friendship and fellowship in our community and encouragement to face whatever may come in the week ahead. For our guests & visitors, we pray that your stay in Tahoe is wonderful, that you have a safe journey home – and return to us soon.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever (Daniel 12:1-3).

Psalm — You are my inheritance, O Lord! (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Where there is forgiveness, there is no longer offering for sin (Hebrews 10:11-14, 18).

Gospel — Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away (Mark 13:24-32).

THE COMMUNION OF SAINTS

We often limit the Church to the organization of people who identify themselves clearly as its members. But the Church as all people belonging to Christ, as that body of witnesses who reveal the living Christ, reaches far beyond the boundaries of any human institution. As Jesus himself said: The Spirit "blows where it pleases" (John 3:8). The Spirit of Jesus can touch hearts wherever it wants; it is not restrained by any human limits.

There is a communion of saints witnessing to the risen Christ that reaches to the far ends of the world and even farther. It embraces people from long ago and far away. It is that immense community of men and women who through words and deeds have proclaimed and are proclaiming the Lordship of Jesus.

"HE IS NEAR" (MK 13:29)

"Then men will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. He will dispatch His angels and assemble His chosen." —Mark 13:26-27

In these last two weeks of the Church year, the Church pays special attention to the Second Coming of Christ. Focusing on Jesus' return in power is critical for our life in Christ and our spiritual well-being.

Some readers of One Bread, One Body live in foreign countries and are actively persecuted for their faith in Jesus. Some of our foreign printers and distributors risk their lives regularly to spread God's Word. If you "face death every day" (1 Cor 15:31) for your life of courageous faith, be encouraged. The Lord Jesus will always have the final word. Your Redeemer lives, and your eyes will see Him (Jb 19:25, 27). "He is near, even at the door" (Mk 13:29; Rv 3:20), and you will see Him coming with great power and glory to vindicate you (Mk 13:26-27). "Stand erect and hold your heads high, for your deliverance is near at hand" (Lk 21:28). For those who don't live for the Lord, Jesus' Second Coming will not be humble and meek as was His first coming. There will be no meek Infant lying in an obscure manger this time. This time His coming will shake the cosmos in "great power and glory" (Mk 13:26). Few noticed Him in Bethlehem; this time "every eye shall see Him, even of those who" reject Him (Rv 1:7). He will come as Judge (Jas 5:9). Therefore, repent now before it's too late! Reconcile with Jesus now, for you know not the day or the hour of His return (Mk 13:32).

Prayer: Lord Jesus, may I know You as Savior as well as Judge.

Promise: "You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in Your presence, the delights at Your right hand forever." —Ps 16:11

Praise: All honor and glory to You, risen Jesus. Maranatha! Come Lord Jesus!

THE SAINTS WHO LIVE SHORT LIVES

As we see so many people die at a young age, through wars, starvation, AIDS, street violence, and physical and emotional neglect, we often wonder what the value of their short lives is. It seems that their journeys have been cut off before they could reach any of their goals, realise any of their dreams, or accomplish any of their tasks. But, short as their lives may have been, they belong to that immense communion of saints, from all times and all places, who stand around the throne of the Lamb dressed in white robes proclaiming the victory of the crucified Christ (see Revelation 7:9).

The story of the innocent children murdered by King Herod in his attempt to destroy Jesus (see Matthew 2:13-18), reminds us that saintliness is not just for those who lived long and hardworking lives. These children, and many who died young, are as much witnesses to Jesus as those who accomplished heroic deeds.

REFLECTIONS

"REJOICE AND BE GLAD" | In the next few weeks we will be posting excerpts from the APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION GAUDETE ET EXSULTATE OF THE HOLY FATHER POPE FRANCIS ON THE CALL TO HOLINESS IN TODAY'S WORLD.
CHAPTER FOUR | SIGNS OF HOLINESS IN TODAY'S WORLD

IN COMMUNITY

144. Let us not forget that Jesus asked his disciples to pay attention to details.

The little detail that wine was running out at a party.

The little detail that one sheep was missing.

The little detail of noticing the widow who offered her two small coins.

The little detail of having spare oil for the lamps, should the bridegroom delay.

The little detail of asking the disciples how many loaves of bread they had.

The little detail of having a fire burning and a fish cooking as he waited for the disciples at daybreak.

145. A community that cherishes the little details of love,[107] whose members care for one another and create an open and evangelizing environment, is a place where the risen Lord is present, sanctifying it in accordance with the Father's plan. There are times when, by a gift of the Lord's love, we are granted, amid these little details, consoling experiences of God. "One winter night I was carrying out my little duty as usual... Suddenly, I heard off in the distance the harmonious sound of a musical instrument. I then pictured a well-lighted drawing room, brilliantly gilded, filled with elegantly dressed young ladies conversing together and conferring upon each other all sorts of compliments and other worldly remarks. Then my glance fell upon the poor invalid whom I was supporting. Instead of the beautiful strains of music I heard only her occasional complaints... I cannot express in words what happened in my soul; what I know is that the Lord illumined it with rays of truth which so surpassed the dark brilliance of earthly feasts that I could not believe my happiness".[108]

146. Contrary to the growing consumerist individualism that tends to isolate us in a quest for well-being apart from others, our path to holiness can only make us identify all the more with Jesus' prayer "that all may be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you" (Jn 17:21).

WHAT'S THE SMOKE FOR?

Dear Johan,

I was very annoyed that someone's cell phone went off during Easter services. Worse, the person sitting next to me was texting throughout the service. What is going on?

Gentle Reader,

You allude to two annoyances. First, the fact that people leave their phones on. Second, that people use their handheld devices.

In response to the first I would like to sheepishly suggest that this might be an honest mistake. One time I forgot to turn off my phone while I was presiding at morning prayer. We were all gathered in our weekday chapel and I was in the midst of the closing collect, my hands lifted in prayer, as the phone in my pocket started to ring. I think I have never been more embarrassed. It did not help when I realized that it was our receptionist who was trying to reach me. This experience cured me forever from keeping my phone on when doing something important. Nevertheless, you have a good point. People should turn off all handheld devices during the celebration of the liturgy.

In response to your second annoyance, I am afraid that this one is much more difficult to deal with as it is something that pervades our culture today. Last week I enjoyed dinner at a lovely restaurant with some good friends. I was struck by the number of times my friends checked their handheld devices. Sometimes they did this in the open, other times conspicuously holding their devices in their laps. Through it all they pretended to continue the conversation and to enjoy the food. I felt cheated. When questioned they answered that they like to multitask. I reminded my friends that I am a jealous friend who does not believe in multitasking when it comes to friendship.

More important and in response to your question, I do not believe in multitasking when it comes to worshiping our God. So, when you come to church, forget about multitasking, rather concentrate and give worship where worship is due and that does not include your handheld device. And should the priest have a brilliant message you are dying to share with your friends, please be patient. Even when sent after the end of the liturgy your five thousand Facebook friends will be appreciative.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL 2018 "REPORT OF GRATITUDE"

This Thanksgiving, as we reflect with gratitude for the many blessings God has given us, Catholics throughout the Diocese are invited to view the 2018 Annual Catholic Appeal "Report of Gratitude." By coming together as Catholics, see how parishioners have helped social service agencies in Northern California to provide hope and help to our brothers and sisters in need. More than 253,000 individuals and families, through love and care inspired by Jesus Christ, moved closer to independence and dignity. Take a moment to see the difference you've made this year. Visit scd.org/annual-catholic-appeal.

The 2018 Appeal is approaching $3.7 million in commitments so far. If you have not yet participated, prayerfully consider a donation. No contribution, no act of charity is ever too small or insignificant.

INVITATION TO THE THANKSGIVING DINNER | November 19th 4pm-6pm

The Bread & Broth program at St. Theresa Catholic Church is observing its 29th anniversary of serving meals to community members in need by offering a special Thanksgiving dinner on Monday November 19 from 4:00-6:00pm in the Grace Hall.

The meal is OPEN TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY just as it has been every Monday at Grace Hall since 1989. We are asking for COMMUNITY DONATIONS to supply key ingredients for the meal: Carrots, celery, mushrooms, onions, oranges, fresh cranberries, sausage, fried onion toppings and butter. Cash donations are also greatly appreciated. Please make arrangements to drop off your contributions by Wednesday, 11/14, at the Church Rectory office on weekdays between 9am-12pm and 1pm-4pm. With your help, we expect to serve 300 diners a delicious traditional Thanksgiving meal. ## 18 DE NOVIEMBRE DE 2018 | TRIGÉSIMO TERCER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

¡Bienvenidos a todos! Nos reunimos con Jesús. Cristo es quién nos invita al banquete celestial. Qué esta liturgia les traiga paz. Si están visitando nuestra iglesia por la primera vez, ¡ójala que se sienten como en familia, una parte de la familia mundial del Señor. Les damos la bienvenida cordialmente y celebramos y contemplamos el misterio de la Eucaristía y rezamos que su viaje a su casa será seguro y que regresen pronto.

ALIENTO | Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

El Evangelio de este domingo es nuestra selección final de Marcos para este año litúrgico. Pertenece a las últimas enseñanzas de Jesús en Jerusalén y se encuentra inmediatamente antes del relato de su arresto y pasión. En este, Jesús da a sus discípulos esperanza para sostenerlos en su pasión y muerte y en cualquier persecución o sufrimiento que enfrenten después de su resurrección.

Las palabras del libro de Daniel también les brindan esperanza y aliento a los contemporáneos de Daniel. El aliento de estas lecturas también nos sirve a nosotros, ya que ninguno de nosotros puede evitar transitar tiempos difíciles en su vida. Los seguidores de Jesús podrán soportar el sufrimiento con esperanza porque saben que el amor de Cristo nos guiará para poder ser buenos discípulos y nos dará la vida eterna junto a Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — En aquel tiempo se levantará el guardián de tu pueblo. Entonces serán salvados cada uno de los que estén inscritos en el libro. (Daniel 12:1-3).

Salmo — Protégeme, Dios mío, que me refugio en ti (Salmo 16 [15]).

Segunda lectura — Ahora, el que ofreció un único sacrificio por los pecados y está sentado a la derecha de Dios, espera que sus enemigos sean colocados como tarima de sus pies (Hebreos 10:11-14, 18).

Evangelio — Nadie sabe cuándo será el día ni la hora (Marcos 13:24-32).

EL LIBRO DEL APOCALIPSIS

"Esta es la revelación que Dios dio" (Apocalipsis 1:1).

La Biblia es la mayor revelación que Dios nos ha hecho por medio de Su Iglesia. Por lo tanto, es apropiado que la Biblia termine en el libro del Apocalipsis o revelación de Jesucristo. Este libro se le ha dado:

- "a Jesucristo" (Ap 1:1),
- a nosotros por medio de Jesucristo para Quien nosotros somos Sus esclavos. (Ap 1:1),
- a nosotros por medio del ángel enviado a Juan (Ap 1:1),
- para mostrarnos "lo que ha de suceder muy pronto" (Ap 1:1),
- como un "mensaje profético" (Ap 1:3),
- para bendecirnos (Ap 1:3),
- a la Iglesia (ver Ap 1:4), y
- para llamarnos al arrepentimiento y retornar a nuestro "primer amor" de Dios (Ap 2:4).

En el libro del Apocalipsis, el Señor ha guardado el mejor vino hasta el final (ver Jn 2:10). Es un gran privilegio poder entrar en el misterio del libro del Apocalipsis. Por tanto:

- agradecemos al Señor por Su revelación,
- pidamos al Espíritu Santo que nos guíe a toda la verdad en el Apocalipsis (ver Jn 16:13),
- leamos todo el libro del Apocalipsis en las próximas dos semanas, no solo las lecturas en la Misa de cada día,
- vivamos lo que leemos en el Apocalipsis y
- compartamos lo que el Espíritu Santo nos enseña en el Apocalipsis.

Terminemos el año de la Iglesia aprendiendo, amando y viviendo el Apocalipsis.

Oración: Padre, que me prepare, con el libro del Apocalipsis para la venida final de Tu Hijo.

Promesa: Señor, "que yo vea otra vez" (Lc 18:41).

Alabanza: Juan y Liz se arrepintieron después de usar anticonceptivos por años. Su matrimonio tiene más intimidad que nunca.

LLAMADO CATÓLICA ANUAL 2018 "REPORTE DE GRATITUD"

En el día de acción de gracias, mientras reflexionamos con gratitud por las muchas bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado, los católicos de toda la Diócesis están invitados a ver el informe del Llamado Católica Anual. Al unirnos como católicos, vemos cómo los feligreses han ayudado a las agencias de servicio sociales en el norte de California a proporcionar esperanza y ayuda a nuestros hermanos y hermanas necesitados. Más de 253, 000 individuos y familias, a través del amor y e inspirados por Jesucristo, se acercaron a la independencia y la dignidad. Tómese un momento para ver la diferencia que se ha hecho este año.

Visite scd.org/annual-catholic-appeal.

El Llamado del 2018 se aproxima a $3,7 millones en fondos hasta ahora. Si aún no ha participado, considere en oración una donación. Ninguna contribución, ningún acto de caridad es siempre demasiado pequeño o insignificante

"ESTÁ CERCA" (MC 13:29)

"Y se verá al Hijo del hombre venir sobre las nubes, lleno de poder y de gloria. Y Él enviará a los ángeles para que congreguen a sus elegidos" (Marcos 13:26-27).

En estas dos últimas semanas del año de la Iglesia, la Iglesia presta especial atención a la Segunda Venida de Cristo. Centrarse en el regreso de Jesús en poder es fundamental para nuestra vida en Cristo y nuestro bienestar espiritual.

Algunos lectores de Un Pan, Un Cuerpo viven en países extranjeros y son activamente perseguidos por su fe en Jesús. Algunos de nuestros impresores y distribuidores extranjeros arriesgan sus vidas regularmente para difundir la Palabra de Dios. Si "te enfrentas con la muerte" cada día (1 Co 15:31) por tu vida de fe valiente, anímate. El Señor Jesús siempre tendrá la última palabra. Tu Redentor vive, y tus ojos lo verán (Jb 19:25, 27). "Está cerca, a la puerta" (Mc 13:29; Ap 3:20), y lo verás venir con gran poder y gloria para reivindicarte (Mc 13:26-27). "Tengan ánimo y levanten la cabeza, porque está por llegarles la liberación" (Lc 21:28).

Para aquellos que no viven para el Señor, la segunda venida de Jesús no será humilde y mansa como fue su primera venida. Esta vez no habrá ningún Niño manso acostado en un oscuro pesebre. Esta vez, su venida sacudirá el cosmos "lleno de poder y gloria" (Mc 13:26). Pocos Lo notaron en Belén; esta vez "todos Lo verán, aún aquellos que" lo habían rechazado (Ap 1:7). Él vendrá como Juez (Stg 5:9), y el tiempo de arrepentimiento habrá terminado. Por lo tanto, arrepíntete ahora antes de que sea demasiado tarde. Reconcíliate con Jesús ahora, porque no sabes el día ni la hora de Su regreso (Mc 13:32).

Oración: Señor Jesús, que Te conozca como Salvador y Juez

Promesa: "Me harás conocer el camino de la vida, sacándome de gozo en Tu presencia, de felicidad eterna a Tu derecha" (Sal 16:11).

Alabanza: Todo honor y gloria para ti, Jesús resucitado.

¡Maranatha! ¡Ven Señor Jesús!
